DISCUSSION Q. 03

Q. 01

What types of people are most difficult for you to acknowledge that Jesus accepts? Why is it so difficult that Jesus loves them as much as you?

Q. 02

What is something you would search for tirelessly even if you had 99 of the same thing? Or would you just cut your loss and move on? Why?

Q. 03

Jesus applies this story to a sinner repenting and the joy happening in heaven. What would be a story that would relate to the modern day?

Q. 01

What was the younger son's attitude toward his father? Have you ever felt like God owes you something? Why?

Q. 02

What would a spiritual pig pen look like in the life of a Christian today?

Do you believe the son's repentance speech he had planned was genuine or out of survival?

Q. 03

Compare and contrast the two sons and the father's conversations with the both of them. Is it possible to hit rock bottom at home as well as in a foreign land?
